Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Attend this church, talk to that pastor, join this bible study group, read these religious books, take a yoga class, try meditating. When you are trying to grow your faith in God and your spirituality level, people will offer up many suggestions to you; but are any of these the right answers for you? If you ve tried some of these ideas and you don t seem to be progressing in your relationship with the good Lord, then you need to read these spiritual messages to get some clear direction for your life. God has a plan for each and every one of us; but since we are all unique in God s eyes, so too can be our relationship with Him. In one of His messages He says Stop looking for me - I m here. So stop looking and start reading what He wants you to do. Whether you are a practicing Christian or not, these messages in this book can have a profound effect on your life and how you choose to live it. Norman Reuter is a semi-retired dad to five children, has five grandchildren, and lives in the Chicago northwest suburbs. After experiencing a Catholic Cursillo weekend (3-day spiritual retreat) in Chicago, back in 1995, some amazing things have happened in his life which he wants to share with you. These spiritual messages that are contained in this book have had a very profound effect on his life and, when you read them, you will see why. In his words, it has been an absolutely amazing experience.
