By Betty Lewis Kasperski

Fruitbearer Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 234 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. Nestled comfortably in their northern New Jersey home, the attack on the Twin Towers, just thirty miles away, prompted this couple to relocate to the remote surroundings of the Eastern Shore. Plans to work side by side in the real estate business for the next five to seven years were unfolding nicely when a painful early morning wake-up call uprooted their status quo. Faced with a life-threatening medical problem, decisions had to be made. Did they triumph or succumb? It is the authors' hope that readers will relate to the never-give-up conviction she and her family clung to as they journeyed together. These pages contain lessons for life, teaching us that true love is a selfless adventure, and true faith is a gift we humbly receive. This story is inspirational, devotional, and instructive for any who are facing challenges that threaten to overwhelm them. The Rev. James L. Moseley, Executive Presbyter, New Castle Presbytery. A masterful use of words and emotions! Although reading, I felt like I was watching a Hallmark movie. James E. Rasa, Author, Dawn of the Innocent. Persistence, faith, and...
