THE OHANA (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Laura Wright Laroche (illustrator). 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A child is dying. Her life depends on an explosive secret her grandmother has kept from their Ohana (family). As Mary Han wrestles with the toxic revelations, she must finally face the past she fought so hard to forget. The Ohana is a riveting retrospective of the social, political, and economic history of Hawaii told through a historical family saga spanning three unforgettable generations. From the young Korean, Han Chaul Roong, who murders the hated Japanese invaders who kidnap his sister and force her into prostitution, to the Japanese aristocrat Kazuko who abandons her life of wealth and privilege to live in poverty with the servant she loves, the Asians came to work the brutal cane fields of Hawaii under Patrick O Malley, a refugee from the Irish famine who sailed on a coffin ship to the gang-infested streets of Boston and ended up in Hawaii after the bloody Civil War. The immigrants meet in the sugar cane fields of Kohala, Hawaii where a savage, unthinkable crime and a failed strike draw the three families together in an uneasy alliance. Sean Duffy, Patrick s nephew, climbs out of Boston s slums to the top of Hawaiian society by way of a loveless marriage to the sister of the woman he loves. Kazuko s beautiful daughter Mariko lives as a social outcaste in the whorehouses of Honolulu. Chaul Roong s son, George Han, the ruthless mob boss of the first Korean syndicate, builds an empire while hiding his love for his brother s wife. The colliding worlds of the immigrants and their American-born children and grandchildren come to a head when an entire generation protests...
